Speak Out, Call In: Public Speaking as Advocacy (Mapes)

Speak Out, Call In: Public Speaking as Advocacy is a contemporary, interdisciplinary public speaking textbook that fuses rhetoric, critical/cultural studies, and performance to offer an up-to-date resource for students. With a focus on advocacy, this textbook invites students to consider public speaking as a political, purposeful form of information-sharing.

- Front Matter

- 1: Advocacy and Audiences
2. Arguments and Information

3. Aesthetics and Delivery

4. Approaches

Back Matter