5.1: Introduction

The environment is the “third teacher”. It is crucial to have our environment be culturally and developmentally appropriate. This chapter will dive into the reasons why our environment is so important and how we have our classroom environments be culturally and linguistically rich and valuable.